In the Beginning

Look at the Hebrew words below. Your teacher will read them to you. Circle every letter with a "m" or a "sh" sound.

Draw an arrow pointing to the first letter of each word above. On what side do Hebrew words start?

Hebrew words start on the _____ side.

Letter Aint

There are five Hebrew letters that change shape at the end of a word. They are called "final letters."

The letter $^{\triangleright}$ is one of the letters that has a final form. At the end of a word it looks like a marshmallow: $^{\triangleright}$

Circle every letter that we find only at the end of a Hebrew word.
